Grand Knights Message For November

Brothers Knights and Families,

We have a lot coming up this month, starting off with the Annual Pig Roast on November 5th. Come on out and have a great time with your friends.

We will be having the Deceased Member Mass on November 17 at 8:00pm. Thank you to Father David and all the brothers who will help out. The Officer's Planning Meeting will be at 7:30pm, before the mass.

Thanks to all that came out to PGK Appreciation Dinner, and congratulations again to PGK Tony Fazioli. Thank you to PGK Frank Panzino and PGK Eric Potyrala for Chairing the event. Also, thank you to all the brothers and families who helped out.

We are all happy to see that the Widows Circle is meeting again. They are meeting at the hall every 1st Wednesday of the month.

I would like to thank the Columbian Club Board of Governors for their help on working with the Council on replacement of the hall's main heating and cooling system. It has been a tough few weeks for everyone involved.

On behalf of the Council, I'd like to wish everyone a very Happy Thanksgiving and start of the Advent season.

God Bless, Vivat Jesus,

GK AI

Columbian Club Corner

In keeping all of our brotherhood updated with what is going on with the council, our main heating and A/C unit in the hall went down and is not repairable. Our Grand Knight Al Favale, Greg Schmitt and I have been getting quotes for replacement on the unit. I hope we can get this done in a reasonable time. We are finding that a lot of units and parts are on back order. I want to thank Jesse DeLuca and Al Favale for going up on the roof to check out what is the problem and for keeping me informed. I will keep the membership updated on the next Columbian Corner on the cost and how we will proceed.

Also, our alarm system went off from a power surge but is ok. However, we will need a new panel in the near future. Our roof is leaking and the roofer will be coming down to make the appropriate repairs.

Please keep St. Andrew, our patron saint, in our hearts and prayers during these difficult times.
