Grand Knights Message For March

Brothers and families of the Council,

This winter has been mild with no snow so far. With spring around the corner, hopefully it will stay that way. I hope that everyone enjoys the start of spring.

Thanks again to PGK Hank Werte and Brother Jesse DeLuca for running the bus trip to Harrah's last month. Everyone had a wonderful time.

Also, thanks again to PGK Eric Potyrala for participating in the 2023 Polar Plunge for Special Olympics in Seaside Heights last month. Thank you for the time that you put in for it.

Our Drive Thru Lenten Dinners are in full swing. Come on out every Friday during Lent except Good Friday and St. Patrick's Day and pick up a delicious meal.

On Friday, March 17th, St. Patrick's Day, we will have Drive Thru Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner. See inside for all the details.

Bingo is back at St. Andrew's Church every Tuesday night at 7:30pm. Doors open at 6:00pm. Food and refreshments available.

Enjoy the month and looking forward to the warmer weather.

Vivat Jesus,

GK AI

Columbian Club Corner

We installed one of our old cameras on the roof to monitor where the water is sitting and plan on installing two new zero water pumps to take care of this problem. Thanks to Greg for installing the camera. We had some new electrical work done at the club. Thanks to Pete and Jesse for helping.

We also installed on the roof a wifi controlled plug for the zero pumps that will soon be purchased. We put the controller switch in the kitchen.

Once again we started our drive-by dinners on January 27th. Our next one will be on February 24 which will be the start of the fish fry. I want to thank all my brother knights and their wives for helping.

We were outside working on the soffits in front of the building and also fixed a few of the gutters. The down spouts were also re-secured.

The banquet hall is doing well with bookings. Chris is doing a great job.

We went over our electric bills for the last two years and on average the Township is using $480 more per month. We will have to address this in our next negotiations.

Other than that, our bar inventory is being done once a week and our numbers are starting to look a little better. Let's keep working hard and keep our home so we can enjoy it.

Thank you all for your help, God bless.

Jimmy
