Grand Knights Message For July

Brothers and families of Saint Andrew's Council,

July will start yet another Columbian year. I would like to thank the brotherhood for their confidence in me to be your Grand Knight. Hopefully, I will follow in my predecessors' shoes, which may be hard to fill.

At this time, I would also like to thank the newly elected officers for stepping up to their positions to assist me. Together I know we will make this Council successful during this extraordinary time. I learned over my time as a member that we have the best and strongest Council, thanks to the membership.

Please consider supporting the Columbian Club curbside dinners on Fridays. This weekly event shows the determination of our Brothers, and the wonderful women who support them, to make us a success.

Once again, thank you for your confidence, but most of all, for your prayers for my daughter Nicole.

God Bless,

GK AI

Columbian Club Corner

Another month has passed which has showed our resolve to continue. Thanks to PGK Greg Schmitt and unbelievable support of the Brothers and their wives, we have had success with our curbside Friday dinners. Every dollar helps us maintain our building, which also prolongs our need to tap our reserve. The most important thing is not the money raised, but the show of desire for this Council. The Friday curbside dinners will continue so please support their efforts.

Even if tapping our reserve may still need to be done, due to the previous efforts of our brotherhood and board to curtail expenses, we were able to accumulate a reserve. With the grace of God and guidance of St. Andrew, we have been blessed. I know this because some Councils are desperately trying to survive. I have always been proud of the Council we have, which I now realize was my shortcoming. I have learned my pride should be of the outstanding brotherhood we have that allows us to enjoy and take pride in our Council.

For those who refer to me as President, being a Brother of St. Andrew's Council is the only title that I will ever embrace.

If we are lucky, you will have to put up with my meetings again when we can open up.

God bless and stay healthy.

Brother Wendell
